How to Spark Meaningful Relationships Keynote Lunch Presentation with Zach Brittle, LMHC

Thursday, May 8, 2025 • 11:30 am Registration | 12 pm Lunch | 1 pm Keynote Porter County Expo Center • 215 E Division Rd • Valparaiso, IN 46383

In this engaging keynote, learn how to re-imagine the way you approach your relationships. Drawing inspiration from improv comedy, curiosity, and creative problem-solving, this talk will challenge the common pitfalls that lead to relationship stagnation.

Through three key practices—immense curiosity, the power of "yes, and," and considering multiple options when faced with relationship dilemmas—you will leave with a fresh perspective on how to keep your relationships vibrant and evolving. To conclude, the talk will introduce a method that offers tangible strategies for fostering surprise, play, asking, repair, and intimacy in everyday interactions.

Whether personally or professionally, this talk will inspire you to breathe new life into your connections and cultivate stronger, more dynamic relationships with family, friends, coworkers and more!

Start Earlier, Learn More!

The Symposium day begins with a morning Clinician Session that features a deeper exploration of the principles and practices of couples therapy with Zach Brittle, LMHC. The session will include breakfast at 7:30am, Zach's presentation of practical tools for clinicians, and then the Keynote Lunch Presentation, which concludes the day. Mental health providers attending the full day can earn four (4) CEUs. For more information and to register for this extended day of learning, please visit porterstarke.org/events/symposium.
